Numb. 4912

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday October 11. to Saturday October 13. 1711.

Vienna, Sept. 26. N. S.

UPON Intelligence that ſome Endeavours have been made to revive the Troubles in Hungary, this Court omits nothing that may conduce to the Confirmation and Continuance of the Peace in that Country. Our Advices in Relation to the King of Sueden continue very uncertain. They write from Conſtantinople, that that Prince is diſpos'd to accept of the Convoy provided for him by the late Treaty: but our Letters from Bender tells us, that he ſtill perſiſts to reject it, in which he is much encourag'd by the Cham of Tartary, who has undertaken to prevail with the Grand Signior to permit a ſtrong Body of Tartars to attend his Sueditſh Majeſty into his own Dominions, and continue there under his Command. From hence it is apprehended by ſome, that the Endeavours us'd to fruſtrate the Intentions of the Peace will have the deſir'd Effect; eſpecially ſince it is evident that the Grand Vizir's Intereſt begins to decline, both at Conſtantinople, and in the Army. We have all the Reaſons we can deſire to be aſſur'd of the King of Spain's Election to the Empire, but it is not known whether his Majeſty will be Crown'd ſoon after the Election, or defer his Coronation to the next Spring. Publick Prayers of Forty Hours are order'd to be put up in all the Churches of this Country for his Majeſty's proſperous Voyage from Spain, and on Friday next thoſe Prayers are firſt to begin in the Cathedral Church belonging to this City. The State of Venice have notify'd to this Court, that it has been unanimouſly reſolv'd in the Senate, to acknowledge his Catholick Majeſty for King of Spain, and that they have appointed two Ambaſſadors to repair to Milan, and receive him as ſuch upon his arrival in that City. His Majeſty propoſeth to make but a ſhort ſtay there, being inclin'd to proceed with the greater Diligence into the Empire.

Bruſſels, Oct. 10. N. S. We have receiv'd Letters from Cambray, importing, that the Mareſchal de Villars pretended there, that the Forces under his Command were in a Condition to keep the Field longer than thoſe of the Allies; in which caſe, he threatned to lay Siege to Bouchain ſo ſoon as the Confederate Army ſhou'd be broken up, having already prepar'd Faſcines and other Materials requiſite for that purpoſe. Though he is ſaid to have declar'd himſelf on this Occaſion with much Confidence, yet the French themſelves are now ſenſible, that an Undertaking of that nature will be impracticable; and, that the great Wants they are under, eſpecially of Forage, will make it impoſſible for them to put any ſuch Deſign in execution. Their Army continues in the ſame Situation as before; only a Part of the ſecond Line has made a Movement, and is at preſent Canton'd at Marquion. The Duke de Guiche was to ſet out for Paris from Cambray this Day or to Morrow, and will ſpeedily be follow'd by the Troops of the Houſhold. The Firſt Inſtant being his Catholick Majeſty's Birth-day, the ſame was obſerv'd here, and in the reſt of the Towns of this Province, with ſeveral Diſcharges of all the Artillery, and other publick Demonſtrations of Joy. Monſieur vanden Berg, the Deputy of the States-General, has receiv'd the Compliments of all the Perſons of Diſtinction here, on his Return into this Province. The Allies have thrown ſeveral Bridges over the Schelde near St. Amand; and a ſtrong Body of Forces is poſted there under the Command of the Generals Dopf and Cadogan, for the better Security of our Convoys. By this means the Army is plentifully ſupply'd with Forage; and it is believ'd the Confederates will keep the Field till towards the End of this Month.

Whitehaven, Octob. 7. Two light Colliers are return'd from Dublin.

Plymouth, Octob. 9. Yeſterday Morning paſs'd by this Harbour to the Eaſtward, the homeward bound Turky and Lisbon Fleets. At the ſame time came in Her Majeſty's Ship the Suffolk from Lisbon. Yeſterday came in the Thouſand Fears with Butter from Ireland. This Day came in the Squirrel of this Place, with Pilchards from Falmouth, and the Leghorne-Gally from Cruſing.

Dartmouth, Octob. 9. Yeſterday came into this Road, the Bleſſing of Limington, Capt. Tayler Commander in three Weeks from Lisbon, in Company of Sir John Norris and the whole Fleet, from whom he ſeparated the Evening before, and halling in for the Land, made the Bolt Yeſterday Morning, a little to the Weſtward of this Place, and then ſaw the Fleet a great way without him, ſtanding up the Channel. This Veſſel is bound for Falmouth with Salt, and hath over-ſhot her Port and is gone to Torbay to proceed for Falmouth, under Convoy of a Dutch Man of War, which is bound thither.

Cowes, Octob. 10. The Ships mention'd in my laſt, were part of thoſe under Convoy of Sir John Norris, laſt from Lisbon, with whom its ſaid were join'd ſome from the Weſt-Indies. From the former is come in